

CLASSES I, II, and III

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY – DUSSEHRA

CLASS III

Highlighting the significance of celebrating festivals, a special assembly on Dussehra, the festival that resonates with the victory of good over evil was presented by the students of Class III on Thursday, October 19, 2023. The assembly began with a pious prayer 'Hey ram'. It was followed by a thought of the day highlighting that every evil can be terminated with goodness and goodwill, which always leads to peace and prosperity. Thereafter, the students who were dressed up as famous characters of Ramayana spoke a few lines and apprised the students about their character. The students also presented a scintillating Durga Vandana and a foot-tapping song on Dussehra.

The School Principal, Ms. Asha Saran Srivastava, and headmistress Ms. Shikha Dhameja, appreciated the efforts of the students and wished everyone a bright and safe Dussehra.

October Activity

World Postal Day Activity

Today, the world has become a global village. Communication and information technology plays a crucial role in bringing the world close together. The early means of communication was the postal service. The aim of celebrating 'World Post Day' is to create awareness of the role of the postal sector in people's and businesses' everyday lives. The students of Class I celebrated the 'World Postal Day' on 11 October 2023 by making beautiful envelopes and writing interesting and hearty letters for their loved ones. They were encouraged to visit the nearby Post Office and interact with the post office staff, see various types of letters, stamps, etc. It was a learning experience and a pleasurable activity for the children.

Relay Race

Relay games are a fun and dynamic way to encourage children to work together, build coordination, and enhance their motor skills. Whether it's running, jumping, or passing objects, relay games offer endless opportunities for kids to develop their abilities and, most importantly, have fun while doing it. As part of 'No Bag Day; Outdoor Fun Activity,' relay races were conducted for the students. The participants enjoyed the races and learned many core values.

A Mindful Session: Story Narration

Stories with morals help teach children important lessons on everything from culture, and behavior, to dealing with tricky situations and recognizing right from wrong. The stories allow the children to reflect and decide what's good and bad – rather than being told directly through the story. Combined with a constructive discussion, the mental exercise of deciding if a character's actions are good or bad, helps them develop their understanding and capability to make assessments. The students were shown stories that encouraged them to discuss the importance of organizing their things in the right order.

Safety First!

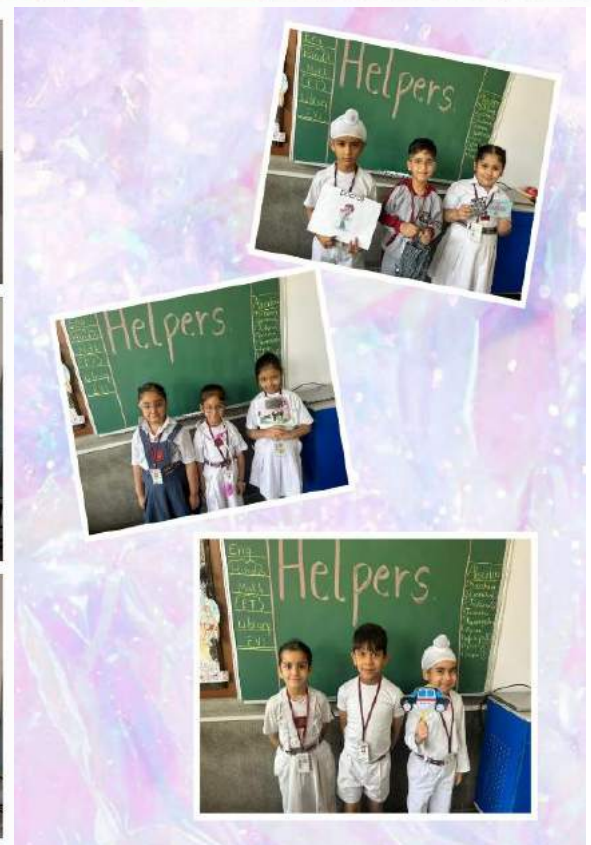

As an endeavor to encourage road safety rules in the students, a 'road safety park' was set up that discussed all the age-appropriate road safety signs and rules. The students were encouraged to explore various road safety signs and symbols and guide their elders about the same.

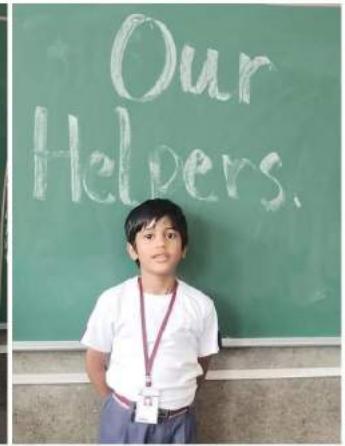

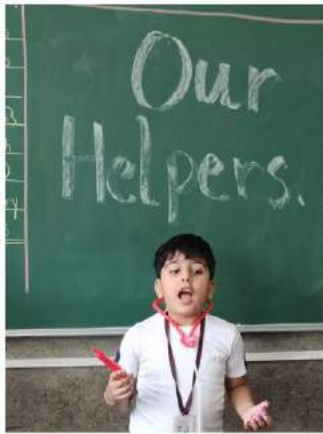

People at Work: An Enactment Activity

Role play fosters self-esteem, creativity, communication skills, and physical development. It's a good way for children to get into character, act out real-life performances, and have a lot of fun. The students of Class I enacted the people who help us and make our lives convenient. The students were encouraged to be creative in their roles. It was indeed a fun method for children to learn about many professions and everyday circumstances by using themed props and equipment.

Measurement Activity

The students of Class 1 tried their hands at measuring the length of various things using their rulers. The activity was indeed a fun-subject enrichment activity that facilitated the concept development of the students.

Mindful Meditation session

Meditation is known to align our body, mind, and soul and enhance our efficiency. The students, at J.K.P.S. are encouraged to practice meditation every day and become a mindful beings. The students are motivated to calm themselves and feel the present moment. The students from an early age tend to become mindful of their actions and therefore, grow into mature and responsible humans.

Class I October Competition Report

The Fancy Dress Competition celebrating national birds and animals was organized for the young Jaspalians of class 1. They showcased their creativity, knowledge, and talent as they effortlessly transformed into various fascinating creatures. This event not only entertained but also enriched the minds of our students and the audience, highlighting the importance of preserving and respecting nature's treasures worldwide.

Class 2 October Competition Report

Endangered species: Fancy Dress Competition

The Endangered Species Fancy Dress Competition for Class 2 was held on 11th October 23. The competition was organized to instill awareness and appreciation for endangered wildlife among the young Jaspalians. Through creative and interactive participation, the competition aimed to emphasize the importance of conservation and the preservation of endangered species.

Event Overview:

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from the students, with each participant showcasing a carefully chosen endangered animal through their vibrant and meticulously crafted costumes. The energy and passion displayed by the young participants illuminated the significance of protecting our planet's precious wildlife.

Participant Engagement:

The participants, dressed as various endangered species, including tigers, pandas, polar bears, and marine animals like sea turtles, portrayed a keen understanding of the challenges faced by these animals. Their dedication to representing these creatures served as a commendable display of empathy and environmental consciousness.

Educational Impact:

The competition gave insights into the importance of biodiversity and the consequences of habitat loss. It facilitated discussions on the critical role each individual can play in safeguarding the environment and preserving the delicate balance of nature. The Endangered Species Fancy Dress Competition for Class 2 was a resounding success, fostering a deeper understanding of the significance of wildlife conservation among the young participants. It is hoped that this initiative will inspire a lifelong dedication to the protection and conservation of endangered species.

HINDI POEM RECITATION COMPETITION

CLASS III

Beauty finds its home in the world of poetry, and the students of grade III eagerly participated in a poetry competition, seizing the opportunity to showcase their talents and self-assurance. This event served as an inspiration for these budding poets, encouraging them to step onto the stage and recite their poems. The students crafted poems on different festivals celebrated in India. The participants spared no effort in giving their best, captivating the audience with their eloquence and remarkable memory. It proved to be an excellent opportunity for them to boost their confidence through stage exposure, and their joy and satisfaction were evident in their delightful performances. The judges showered their appreciation and applause to the participants for their outstanding performances.
