Shatarupa Tarun

Learning Outcomes

- Value Education is the Foundation of education - Each child is unique and has infinite potential; education is the unfolding of this potential which can be manifested as excellence in every walk of life. The faith in this strength is called Atmashradha and is the basis of awakening several human possibilities that are open to us. The possibilities are broadly classified into two categories- Universal Possibilities (six possibilities open to all of us) and Unique Possibilities (based on our talents, interests, environment, and self-effort) which are further classified into physical (six) and knowledge (six) possibilities.
