Below the title, there are five video thumbnails showing students dressed as news anchors. On the right side, there is a vertical list of names and icons, likely representing other participants or a chat log.

CLASS IX

Activity : Colour the Story

The students listened to the story narrated by the teacher and made notes simultaneously in a group of five. They divided the scenes among themselves to draw, colour and explain it in their own words with only one twist to the story. With this activity, they were able to guide the viewers' eye towards the important elements of the story in a specific order.
