Alumni initiatives

At J.K.P.S., we believe in nurturing not just academic excellence but also instilling timeless values in our students. From the moment they step through our doors, they are guided by principles of integrity, empathy, respect, and responsibility. These core values shape their character and influence every aspect of their lives.

Kishadeep Kaur: Origami Workshop 'Empowering Underprivileged Children'

In the spirit of creativity and compassion, Virtuoso - The Fine Arts Society of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce embarked on a heartwarming journey by organizing an Origami Workshop for the underprivileged children near Kirti Nagar Industrial Area, facilitated by our alumni.

Jiya Taneja: Partnering with Rotary International for Community Outreach

In a significant step to uphold the school's tradition of service and community involvement our alumna carrying forward the legacy by partnering with Rotary International for Community Outreach Fundraising.

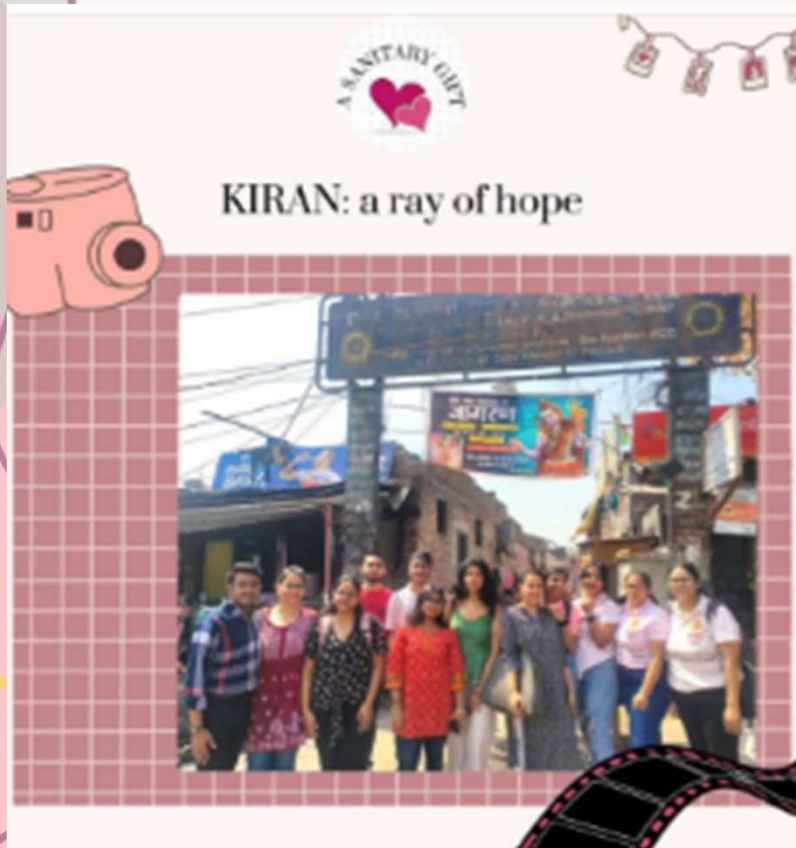

Akanksha Goel: Contribution drive with Kind Beings

Our alumna is continuing our school's tradition of service by partnering with kind being to help those in need by collecting important supplies like stationery, books, clothes, and toys.

Atulya Sharma: Promoting menstrual health and hygiene

It's truly inspiring to witness how our alumna has embraced the ethos of our school and extended its legacy by partnering with a range of impactful organizations such as the Kiran Fundraiser, Girl Up Wings, A Sanitary Gift, and Warriors without Cause NGO. Together, they embarked on a noble mission to distribute sanitary pads and engage with women and girls in the bustling Mohan Singh Market of New Delhi. Beyond simply providing hygiene products, they dedicated themselves to educating on menstrual hygiene management, effectively breaking the silence surrounding periods..
