01 SKILL:- COOKERY

"Skill is better than strength."
Polish Proverb

Today I prepared steamed mutton. It is a type of East and South Asian steamed meat dish. Mutton is known to be healthy and nutritious. It is popular across a wider region of the Indian subcontinent with a filling of spices like cumin, coriander and chives with which I served bubblegum thick shake. I used bubblegum bubblegum ice cream.

A sifter is a mesh-like dish invented in Mumbai. It is cooked and served on a hot metal plate that is heated to a scorching charge. The dish is inspired by the impressive Nepalese in which vegetables and meat are cooked on a very hot metal griddle. To keep the inside soft and moist, and make the outside crunchy, I've been using prepared also like sifter in which I have prepared a filling. Also, I used bubblegum sifter, bubblegum sifter, and some grilled vegetables.

Today I made corn paner capsicum sabzi. Corn paner capsicum sabzi is a simple Indian recipe with delicious combination of flavors of capsicum, paner and corn, mixed together along with some Indian spices. This Indian recipe is unique in taste and flavor.

Today I made annakoot curry along with poori. Annakoot curry is prepared on the next day after Diwali for Annakoot-Govindan Puja as prasada. It is generally made with all sorts of seasonal vegetables that one can get hold of at the onset of winter.

Today I made kathi chawal (kathi-riech). It is a popular dish from India and Pakistan. Kathi is prepared by mixing Curd, Besan and different spices. It is served with boiled rice and is very popular in Northern and Western States of India. It usually has a thick consistency.

Cajun Spice potato - a creamy and tasty appetizer or starter recipe made with baby potatoes with creamy mayonaisse sauce. It is basically an extension to the popular meat based Cajun recipe for the vegetarian or non-meat eaters. It is one of the highlights and popular starter of barbecue nation served just before the main course.
