Class III Project Show 2025

Jaspal Kaur Public School (JKPS), Shalimar Bagh, hosted the Class III Annual Project Show, ‘Roots and Wings: Nurturing Hearts, Cultivating Minds’ on Saturday, August 2, 2025, in the school premises. Honouring the occasion as Guest of Honour was Mr. Himanshu Hira, an alumnus of JKPS and Head of Product, IT & Digital, Reckitt. Mr. Harjot Singh, an alumnus of JKPS, and Mr. Naveen Sewai were other luminary guests. The school Chairman, Sardar Surjit Singh Ji, and Vice-Chairperson, Mrs. Rasna Singh, also presided over the function, among other dignitaries.

The school principal, Mrs. Asha Saran Srivastava, extended a warm welcome to all the esteemed guests. She also shared a brief yet inspiring overview of the school's achievements across academics and co-curricular activities. She touched upon the meaningful themes presented, emphasizing the need for children to reconnect with nature and real-life experiences beyond screens, while also celebrating the timeless value of friendship.

The programme commenced with a soulful rendition of the Shabad, creating a serene ambience. The students presented a mesmerising Guruvandana – a heartfelt tribute to their gurus, followed by the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the triumph of wisdom over darkness.

The young Jaspalians once again left the audience spellbound with two impactful and engaging plays—Offline Under the Tree and Echoes of Friendship. Offline Under the Tree highlighted a growing concern of the digital age. Through a relatable and heartfelt narrative, the play beautifully portrays how reconnecting with nature can restore balance between the virtual and real worlds. The second play, Echoes of Friendship, unfolded the touching tale of a unique friendship, where loyalty, kindness, and selflessness emerged as the true essence of a lasting bond.

The highlight of the show was a powerful Mime Act that conveyed the crucial message of saving water. Through expressive gestures, heartfelt emotions, and impactful body language, the children portrayed the urgency of water conservation and the value of every drop before it's too late.

Mr. Himanshu Hira, an alumnus of JKPS, the Guest of honour, took a nostalgic trip down memory lane, fondly reminiscing about his formative years in the school, encouraging the students to perform their best according to their capacity and capability. The school Headmistress, Mrs. Shikha Dhameja, expressed her gratitude to the esteemed guests for their benign presence and appreciated the tireless efforts of the students, parents, and teachers. The event culminated in a patriotic note with the playing of the national anthem. Overall, the show was a great learning experience for everyone.
