IAYP – Award Leader Training Workshop

Topic: IAYP – Award Leaders National Training Workshop

Venue: Mapple Hall, Habitat World at India Habitat Centre, Lodhi Road, New Delhi

Date: July 17–18, 2025

The International Award for Young People, India, conducted a two-day Award Leaders Training Workshop at the India Habitat Centre, New Delhi.

The resource persons for the workshop were Mr. Kapil Bhalla (National Director, IAYP), Mr. Bivujit Mukhoty (Programme Manager), and Ms. Ankita Gera (Programme Officer – North).

As a prerequisite, participants were required to complete online Award Community Courses before attending the workshop.

Key components covered during the sessions included an introduction to the Online Record Book (ORB), registration processes, a detailed understanding of the Award levels, and insights into the various Award sections.

The workshop was thoughtfully designed and provided an enriching, hands-on learning experience. A variety of interactive activities were incorporated to enhance practical understanding.

Teachers from 19 schools across India participated in the workshop. The group represented a wide range of professional backgrounds and experiences, creating a dynamic and diverse learning environment.

By the conclusion of the workshop, a clearer understanding had been developed regarding effective promotion of the Award, along with strategies to guide and motivate participants through the completion of various sections and levels.
