Report on Orientation Workshop to Career Fair

Date: 29th October, 2025

Resource Person: Mr. Vaibhav Sharma

An Orientation Workshop to the Career Fair was organized on 29th October for students of Classes IX to XII with the objective of guiding them towards informed career choices and future planning. The session was conducted by Mr. Vaibhav Sharma, a renowned career coach, who engaged students through interactive discussions, visuals, and real-life examples.

For Classes IX and X, the workshop centred around stream selection—helping students understand their interests, abilities, and personality types while making subject choices. Mr. Sharma emphasized the importance of self-awareness, aptitude, and goal clarity before opting for a stream. He also introduced students to various combinations of subjects and how each stream opens doors to a wide range of professions in today’s dynamic world.

For Classes XI and XII, the focus shifted to “WOW Careers”, where students were introduced to new-age courses, trending industries, and unconventional career opportunities. Careers in areas such as artificial intelligence, data science, environmental studies, digital media, psychology, and design were discussed in depth. The session highlighted how the evolving world of work values skills, creativity, and adaptability over traditional career patterns.

Mr. Sharma also guided students on the role of higher education institutions, entrance exams, and evolving job markets, motivating them to pursue careers that align with their strengths and passions. The session concluded with an engaging question–answer round, where students sought clarity on various career-related doubts.

Overall, the workshop was informative, inspiring, and thought-provoking, successfully equipping students with awareness about emerging opportunities and the importance of early career planning. It served as an excellent prelude to the upcoming Career Fair, preparing students to explore diverse pathways with confidence and clarity.
