

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award for Young People

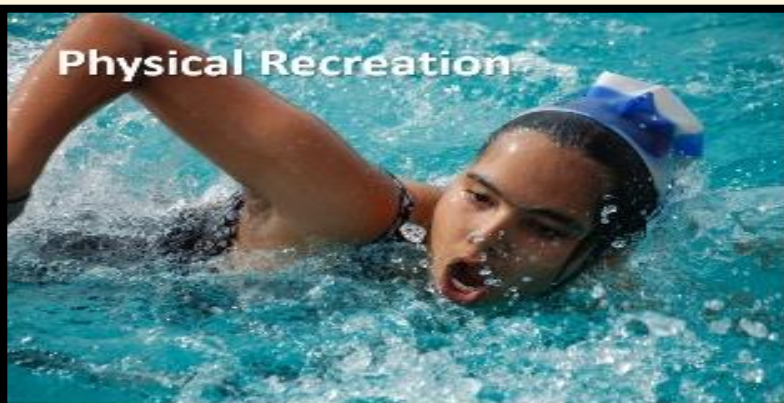

Proud to deliver

JKPS runs the International Award for Young People, founded in 1956 by Prince Philip to celebrate youth achievements beyond academics.

Key features:

- An exciting Self-development Programme
- Operational for age groups of 14 to 25 year
- An initiative to equip students with life skills, build confidence, and engage them in community service
- Allows individuals to choose activities they enjoy, at their own pace, for the minimum required duration
- More than 11 million young people worldwide have participated so far.

Physical Recreation

Skills

4 Mandatory Sections of The Award

Service

Adventurous Journey

How it Works?

Available to anyone between 14 to 25 years

Three Levels

Bronze Must be 14 years.
Work for 6 months min

Silver Must be 15 years.
Work for 12 months min

Gold Must be 16 years.
Work for 18 months min

The students are oriented about the programme through PowerPoint presentations, videos, and talks by IAYP Award Leaders and students who are already enrolled in the programme.

This year, 23 students have enrolled and are actively participating in the activities across various sections.

Benefits

The Award Experience leads to

- Commitment
- Teamwork
- Confidence

Resulting in

- Higher Education achievement
- Increased Employability
- Leadership Roles

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award for Young People

Proud to deliver

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S
INTERNATIONAL AWARD

Glimpses of Activities undertaken by students

PHYSICAL RECREATION

ADVENTURE JOURNEY

SKILL SECTION

Glimpses of Activities undertaken by students

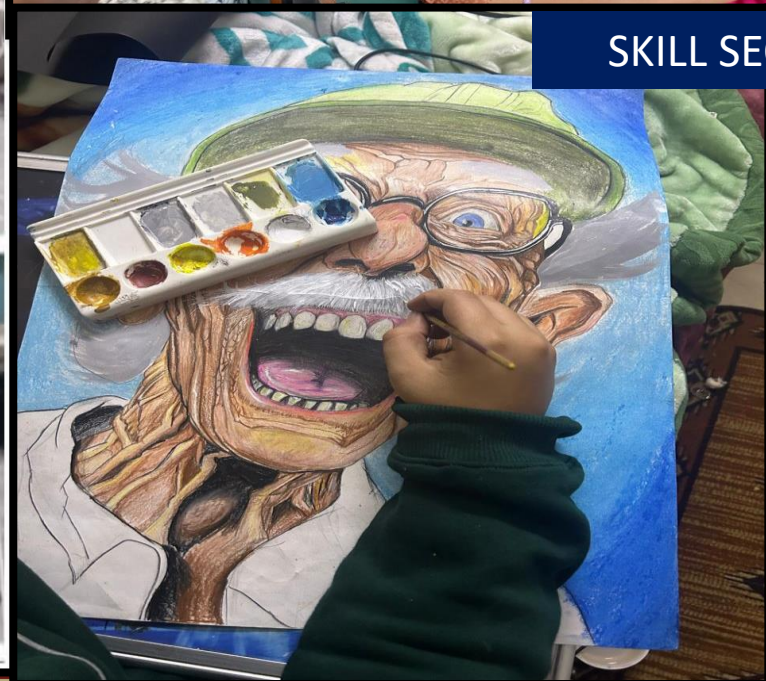

SERVICE SECTION

SERVICE SECTION

SKILL SECTION

Global Dreams, Global Stage

A big round of applause for our students, Mehak Saini of Class XII and Sargunreet Kaur of Class X, who gave a scintillating semi-classical dance performance at the IAYP Gold Award Ceremony and made us proud. They also participated in team-building activities.

