

Project Show Class I (2022-23)

“Tranquility, serenity, and beauty of nature teach us how to find happiness in life and the silence of eternity. ”

With this beautiful thought JKPS, Shalimar Bagh, organized Class I Annual Project Show - ‘Nature...A Majestic Canvas’ on Saturday, February 25, 2023, on the school premises.

Ms. Gunjan Bidani, an Alumna of JKPS graced the occasion as the Guest of Honour. The school Chairman, Sardar Surjeet Singh Ji also presided over the function among other dignitaries. The school Principal, Mrs. Asha Saran Srivastava, extended a warm welcome to all the esteemed guests.

The programme commenced by invoking the divine blessings of the Almighty with a Shabad recital followed by the lighting of the lamp. The budding artists of Class I mesmerised the audience with their scintillating performance in the story dramatization, “Where is Spring?” depicting the aftermaths of our carelessness towards nature. The next dramatization “Mr. Sun Goes on Holiday” was cherished and applauded by the audience. The story revolved around how imperative nature is for mankind and how our lives revolve around them. It was followed by a foot-tapping dance representing the celebration of the spring season in the states of Assam and Maharashtra. The audience was overwhelmed by the spectacular performance of the students.

Ms. Gunjan Bidani, the Guest of Honour addressed the audience and appreciated the project show. She recalled her old times spent in the school and motivated the students to give their best according to their capacity and capability effectively and efficiently. She also expressed her gratitude towards the institution and applauded the efforts of team JKPS.

The show ended with a vote of thanks by the Headmistress, Mrs. Shikha Dhameja. Overall, the show was a huge success and was well-perceived by the audience.

