CLASS ASSEMBLY REPORT

CLASS VIII, IX, X A - D

Date -24 Dec 2021

The topic for the assembly: 'Christmas Celebrations'

Christmas day is annually celebrated by Christians all over the world on the 25th of December. This festival is celebrated in commemoration of the birth of Jesus Christ. As the scripture says, Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary in a manger in Bethlehem on the eve of Christmas.

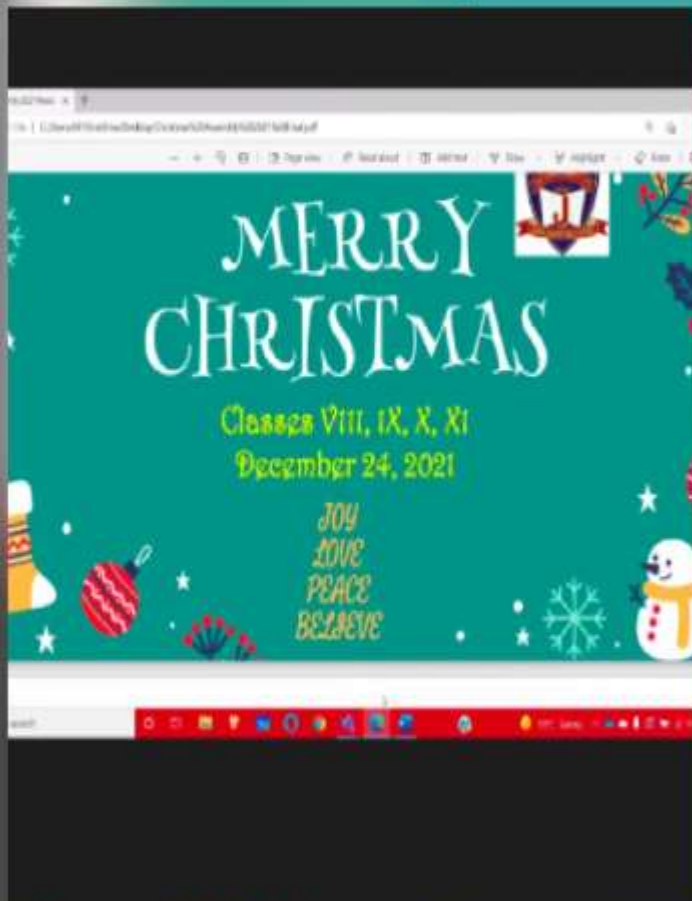

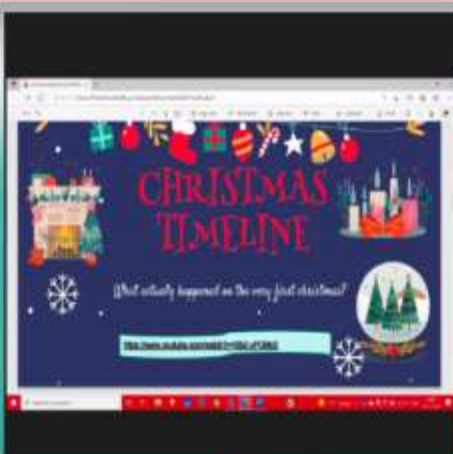

As a part of the Christmas celebrations, Christians worldwide gather for liturgy on the eve of 24 December which ends at the midnight. Customary preparations include exchanging gifts, singing Christmas carols, eating Christmas cake, preparing the crib, which replicates the manger where Jesus was born and setting up the Christmas tree.

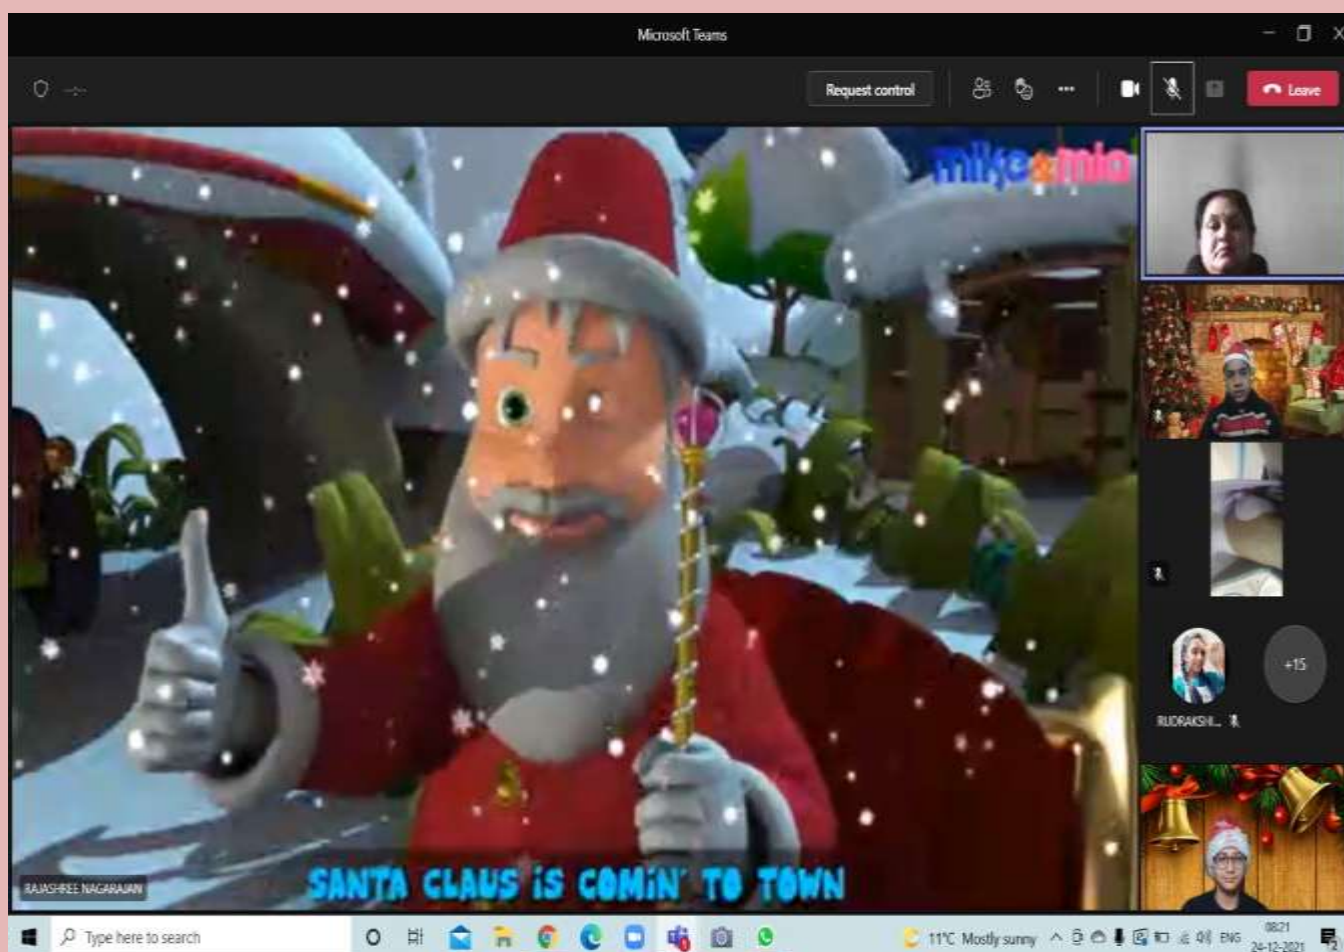

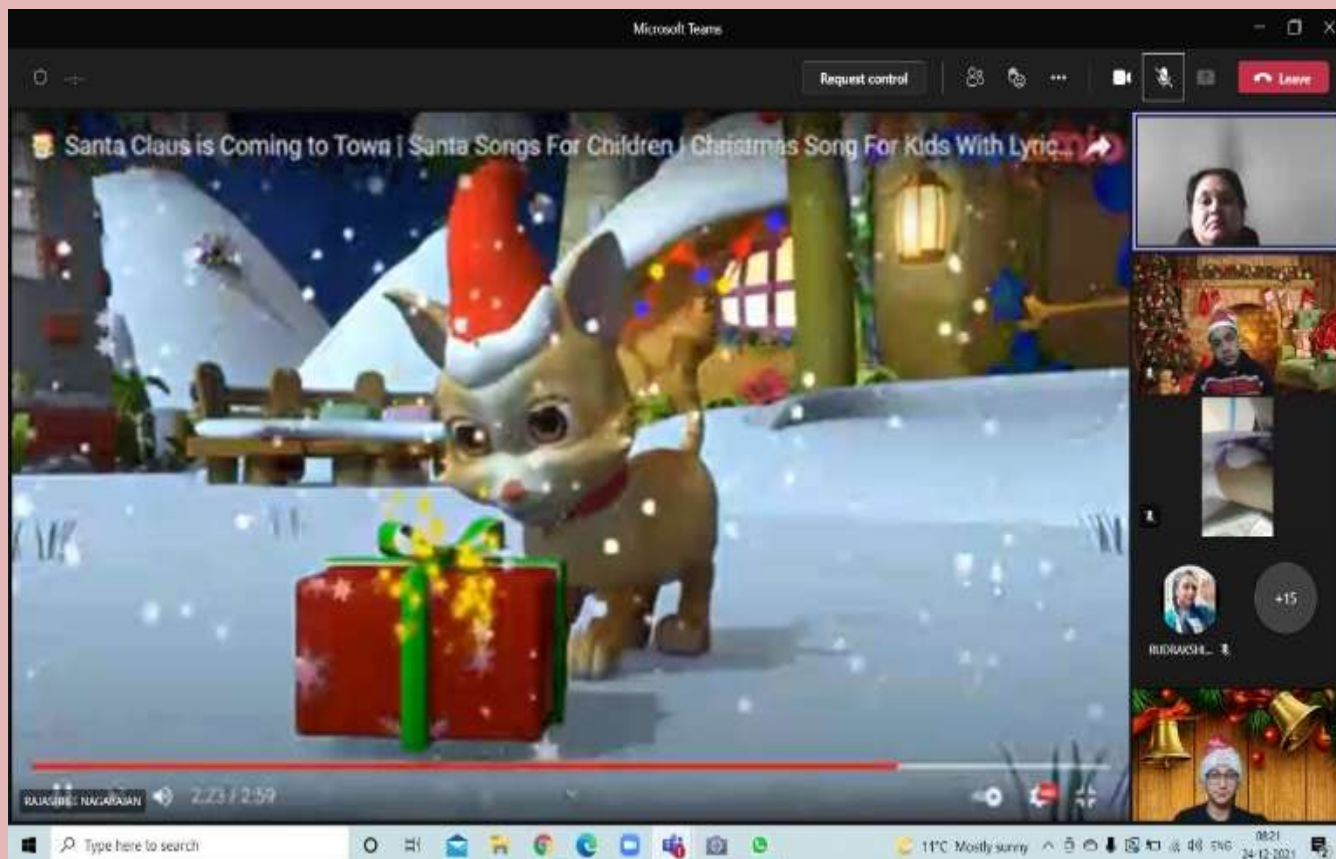

The assembly began with a prayer, followed by audio-visual links highlighting the importance of Christmas celebrations. Also, there were fun activities to enrich the minds of our students.
